A TERRIFIC EXPLOSION Three Workmon Killed at Dupont

PENN'S GROVE, N. J. March 13.-Over $,000 pounds of smokeless powder exploded yesterday at the E. I Duponi powder works at Carney Point, near here and opposite Wilmington, Del, injuring a number of others slightly The dead are Isaac Layton, William Ford and John Magill. The bodies of the dead were blackened and disfigured by the explosion.

The cause of the accident has not been determined, but it originated in one of the drying houses about I o'clock where Layton was at work The shock from this explosion shook the country for miles around, and in this town heavy panes of glass were broken in many houses Across the Delaware river in Wilmington the noise of the explosion was also heard. Francis Dupont and his nephew were at work in the laboratory at the time of the explosion and were slightly injured by pleces of glass, but personally directed the care of the other injured and the recovery of the dead. The works have been running on large government or ders for smokeless powder

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., March 23 -The trial of Dr. Nancy A. Guilford, the midwife, on a charge alleging second degree murder in causing the death of Emma Gill of Southington, may now be said to be fairly begun When court opened At 18 o'clock vesterday morning one juryman was still lacking Out of an extra panel of 14 taleamen 12 men were examined before the jury was completed at 11 30 o clock

The trial proper was then taken up, after a few preliminaries, by the intro-duction of witnesses by the state Nine witnesses in all were examined up to the time of adjournment. In the main their testimony was of a technical char-acter dealing with the finding of the portions of Emma Gills body in the Yellow Mill pond and the various events connected therewith From the spectator's standpoint the rial was very tedious. All of the witnesses were minutely examined by counsel for the defense and obliged to so into great detail Mrs Guilford seemed much better yesterday and stood the ordeal of the trial better than expected seemed very nervous but her health is evidently improving rapidly
